The PENNSYLVANIA SYMPHONIC WINDS (PSW) is a relatively new wind ensemble that has lately been garnering growing fame and followers.

The ensemble was founded and organized in early 2007 by its director, Philip Evans, bandmaster of Valley Forge Military Academy and College in Wayne, PA. Mr. Evans is a fairly recent arrival on America's shores: he is a native of the United Kingdom who honed his musical skills during twenty-four years' service with The Band of Her Majesty's Royal Marines.

His ensemble is comprised of approximately 47 professional and semi-professional musicians from Philadelphia and surrounding counties.

Some recent venues at which the Winds have appeared include Shriners Childrens' Hospital in Philadelphia, Rose Tree Community Park in Media, PA, the Good Samaritan Episcopal Church in Paoli, PA, Valley Forge Military Academy, and the Media Theatre.

For further informaton, and for a list of upcoming concerts, please see the Pennsylvania Symphonic Winds' website at <http://www.pennsylvaniasymphonicwinds.org>.
